Subject: Contract [REDACTED]

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to our contract [REDACTED] with you effective September 1, 1964, [REDACTED] printing machine representing our most advanced state-of-the-art was produced and made ready for shipment to a destination of your choice. Anticipating some direction from you immediately following the consumation of this agreement, the machine has been standing for over two months in a premium fabrication area. This was done expressly to permit quick access and minimize any delay in shipment.

Increasing demand for the space occupied by this equipment has made it more and more difficult to justify its use in this manner. Accordingly, unless some disposition can be made in the immediate future it will be necessary for us to transfer the equipment to an appropriate warehouse area. It would, therefore, be in your best interest to estimate as accurately as possible the date on which you feel shipment will be required.

It will be possible for us to defer this move only until 30 November. We would appreciate some guidance from you before that date.

Very truly yours,

Manager
